AGENDA ITEM/TOPIC: Discussion about Meriwether Monument

PLEASE PROVIDE A SUMMARY OF YOUR COMMENTS TO COUNCIL.

SUMMARY

I support the removal of the monument because of its oppressive meaning to the black residents of NA.

My name is Chris Hawkins. I'm a proud resident of North Augusta. I was born and raised right here in North Augusta.

I am here tonight because the city of North Augusta is not a progressive city. Some people may see the new amphitheater as a sign of progressiveness. I look at the name of the veterans park and I see the name of a white supremacist, Wade Hampton. Some people may see the ball park on the river as a sign of progressiveness. I look at the name of John C. Calhoun Park — a man who advocated for slavery — and I see a monument that talks about the ideals of white supremacy.

This hateful monument honors Thomas McKie Meriwether as a man who “exemplified the highest ideal of Anglo-Saxon civilization. By his death he assured to the children of his beloved land the supremacy of that ideal.”

I believe this monument is worse than the Calhoun statue that was removed in Charleston. The Calhoun statue, which was recently taken down after 123 years, certainly deserved to be taken down. That statue, however, doesn't have the racist and supremacist rhetoric that the Meriweather Monument has engraved.

When I see that statue, I see a town — my hometown — that upholds this idea that whites are superior. I see a town with residents who think this type of behavior is OK and defend the idea of white supremacy with all their might. These folks have the nerve to attend church on Sundays. They smile, they worship, they pray to God, and the entire time, they scoff at the very notion of tearing down a symbol of hate and oppression.

This city has known about this shameful monument for nearly three years. The city partnered with historians and came up with an extensive report about the events of the Hamburg Massacre. The massacre was not a noble cause — it was the beginning of a violent campaign that emphasized Black voter suppression and eradicated civil rights for Black Americans. I am embarrassed for my hometown because we have admitted there is a problem; however, we have not corrected that problem.

The problem isn't just the Meriwether monument — the monument is a symptom. The problem that we have in North Augusta has been a problem ever since a part of this time was known as Hamburg. The problem is that we have not shown our Black brothers and sisters in this community that their lives matter.

When we marched in North Augusta, we marched with people of all walks of life. We marched with people who believe that the Meriwether monument has no place in North Augusta because it SOLELY represents the idea of white supremacy. Your failure to tear down this monument shows that you are willing to continue in the supremacist legacy of this town. There is NOTHING progressive about that. Understand that your willful decision to retain this monument is more telling of the core values of North Augusta than it is of the people in this town who want it removed. It's time to finally do the right thing and take the Meriwether monument down.

Social Media Comments About the Meriwether Monument

Anthony Plumley Tbh the view from the hotel parking lot would be better with it removed 🗿♂

Lorraine Stuckey Great Place to sing Christmas carols.

Michael Anderson Hamburg Massacre if you don't know what it is then look it up. I for one think all this statue tear down crap is nonsense but this monument in my eyes must go. I do not agree with why it was erected and I think the person it honors is less than honorable.

Lauren Hall 🗿 Agreed. That bump and tree canopy are the best. I've never noticed the monument and was appalled in recent years at the discovery of its history and inscription. None of us will miss it I'm sure.

Dell Ballard I have lived here my whole life and never even knew what it said. It is truly shameful and hurtful and at least the words need to be gone.

Whitney Parham-Roberts This is the second NA Councilman (that I've witnessed) to speak out in favor of removing the monument and it makes me so proud to be from and live in NA. It's time for America to move on and heal from our ugly past as a nation and this is just the beginning!!!

Tiffany Byington Fackrell This one needs to go.

Wendy Williams It's a monument to white supremacist ideology, is an abomination and needs to be destroyed. It has nothing to do with anyone's legitimate and honorable heritage.

Ajay Krishna-Kumar Tell them to get rid of it. There is not even any shade of grey present in this case. If you support keeping this monument, you have not read anything about it or what it commemorates.

Janelle Miskelly Proudly signed! No need for a monument in honor of a racist to remind us not to be racist.

Meg Thompson Webb Signed! Never knew what it said before. It does nothing to further society.

- Alysaun Buffett
1. Anglo-Saxon is referring to the white race in case there was any confusion about the inscription.
 2. This isn't a historical marker for the historical event that took place in Hamburg. The historical marker for the event is located at Historic Carrsville on Barton Rd.
 3. This was a mistake made years ago to erect a monument to honor a man who deserved no honor for the actions he took (and left out the actual victims of the event) and we should try to fix the errors of our past.
 4. The white men who attacked were not soldiers, did not have legal orders given but were what we call today "homegrown terrorists" trying to suppress the rights of their fellow citizens because of their race.

Suzanne Fanning Alysaun Buffett 🗿🗿🗿🗿 some people don't want to see that monument for what it is!

Douglas Hudock I lived in down town NA for 30+ years and never read that damn monument until now. Put a nice fountain in it's place.

Jaxen Coleman I know people keep talking about how "you can't remove history", yet the thing those people fail to understand is that these monuments were never made to remember history in the first place. This monument, and most monuments like it, were built during the 1890s-1950s, during the time of Jim Crow. This monument in particular was built 40 years after the event.

The point of these monuments was never historical. It was to remind black people that even though they had been freed, that they were not equal, and (in the constructors' eyes) never would be.

To get rid of these monuments isn't to get rid of history. It's to get rid of a message of white supremacy that was created specifically to try and keep black people down.

Josh Anderson For the record I am not for taking down statues and historical monuments but there are some monuments that were specifically erected to excite hatred and division, this is one of them.

Mark W Jones I have to say I'm not one for removing monuments and by the way I live at the corner of Stonewall Jackson Blvd and Beauregard (Virginia). But when I read the history behind the event I was shocked and saddened. This one ought to come down. No one should commemorate the Hamburg Massacre in a positive light.

Melissa Cole Perhaps we could have a community contest that encouraged North Augustin's to submit ideas for a new statue or art installation in its place?

Heather Odiorne Well said! Tear it down

Laura Jones "Where does it stop?" It stops when we no longer have such hateful, evil ideologies allowed to have a place of honor. That plaque is so incredibly offensive - it has no place in my hometown. It's absolutely despicable that it's still around.

Lindsey Graham Of the monument, Graham said: "Seems to me like it needs to come down."

Laura Jones The monument doesn't fit now and shouldn't have ever fit in when it was first installed. Shameful that we've allowed it to remain for over 100 years!

Chris Hawkins I'm not sure what the hold up is as this has been a discussion for years. Why are you and others wasting time? Why are you giving the people excuse after excuse? Can you explain how Charleston took down their monument independently from the Heritage Act? You said all that to essentially say nothing at all. No more excuses. No more promises. No more dragging yalls feet.  GET TO WORK AND TAKE THAT MONUMENT DOWN

Amanda Deal Take it down! If its protected, you should ask yourself why. Read the words on that monument.. you cant make a sound argument to leave it for any reason. Protected doesn't mean correct. Lawful doesn't mean morally right. Laws and protections should be challenged when they treat minorities as less than.

Brandy Nicole Fox Listening doesn't mean anything if you don't take action. Take it down!

Stephanie Yazzie Take it down!

Katie German Hall Doesn't the Heritage Act just cover monuments associated with the Confederacy? The Merriwether monument isn't a Confederate monument, it's a white supremacist monument. Should be easy to take it down....unless the State AG's office decides to argue that white supremacy and Confederacy are synonymous and therefore the Heritage Act applies. 🙄

Lauren Cavender Stapleton I really had no idea they literally put up monuments specifically celebrating racism and the awfulness that came with. Thank you for putting this out there! I will do more research before I roll my eyes about taking down a monument!

Vidal Sanabria Jr. Jesus..... wth kind of memorial is that?

Libby Smith Henderson Another monument that needs to come down.

Missie Braddy Usry I've seen the monument a million times. Driven by it twice every day going to and from work in North Augusta for 8 years. I NEVER knew it said that. Terrible!

Joann Canty I live in North Augusta and I never knew this. I am going to make it my business to see this. I know it will upset me because I have chills just looking at this 🙄

Joann Canty, I think so many of the people "defending" these monuments don't really know the whole story about them. I didn't know about this monument either. Now that I do, I will advocate for its removal! I don't see how anyone could defend it when they know the whole story.

Emilie Mallett Gahhhhhh I'm So tired of people defending this "monument".

Kim Shaw Ball This monument was erected 40 years AFTER the massacre. Like so many of the confederate monuments, it sure seems like this monument was probably erected mostly to intimidate black people and "keep them in their place". It needs to come down!!!

Amber M Hickey I live here and never knew I'm so disgusted

Shalina Christesson Grorich Judy Wheeler except this isn't actually a confederate or civil war monument. It was after the war and was a blatant act of white supremacy. There is no heritage in this monument. There was no honor in this attack. It was purely hate and politics. And then this monument was erected 40 years after the massacre, calling it a riot to put the blame on the people of Hamburg, just to remind folks of North Augusta what their values really were and who was in charge

Moore Semande Carla This was discussed the past couple years. Learned about this three years ago doing a scavenger hunt. It definitely needs removing. I would say it is not something to be proud of at all.

Moore Semande Carla It is a symbol of a very corrupt government at the time.

Corrine Boykin This monument is a disgrace. A thriving black community was destroyed the likes of Rosewood and Tulsa. It represents the epitome of white supremacy. I am deeply saddened. Tear it down.

Alison Frazzetta I believe that historical monuments have a place for educational history. But from my research on the Meriwether Monument... it should go!

Rachel Carter Definitely needs to go. Blatant white supremacy. Doesn't deserve any spot light

Jo Angela Edwins Long past needing to go. It's the poster child of racist monuments and should be used as an example to change state laws that protect such abominations.

Kristie Heath Putt I was not familiar with this statue until recently but the inscription on it is honoring the lone white man killed in an attack on a black militia. He was praised for giving his life to insure whites would basically remain " the supreme race." (maintain that time periods lifestyle for future generations)I cannot remember the exact wording but the whole premise behind it is pretty gross. I am all for preserving history but maybe this statue could move to a muesem.

Timothy L. Brightharp Take it down, it has no place in 2020s society.

Kymberlie Anderson Take it down! Why would anyone want to keep this monument up?

Satchel Dickson y'all keep saying it's history but it's literally a monument erected for a man who died while preserving white culture in south carolina.

Christina D'Angelo The grammar on that thing is a mess — and poorly laid out — oh, and a charming reminder of a people who literally fought to own other human beings. Yeah, so there's that. Replace it.

David Matos Mark Cuckerberg No, it's worse...the language on the monument is outright white supremacist.

Barbara Owens The words on the side of the Merriwether monument are particularly offensive. If you aren't familiar with it, go look before you comment. Our city council, mayor and his committee have been putting this off for two years now. Enough.

Lee Moss McCowan I'm not for destroying monuments, but look at the history behind this one and read the words on it. It doesn't represent North Augusta to be in such a prominent place. It's an embarrassment to the city.

Christy Nichole Vickery-Wren I don't know why this thing was even created, Ohh yeah I do, not for anything really important.

Kristina Desrosier Weaver So excited to be a part of destroying the racism in America!

Cathy Fenn Third panel of the Hamburg memorial, "In life he exemplified the highest ideal of Anglo-Saxon civilization. By his death he assured to the children of his beloved land supremacy of that ideal." This is blatantly racist. It's disgusting and I don't know why anyone would think this is okay.

Jennifer Jiggs Moore This monument is the historical equivalent to giving one to Dylann Roof. Both turds deserve to be forgotten.

Remarks have also been given by Eric Presnell and Kevin Toole. They are in support of the removal. The Mayor is as well.

If you need a monument to remind you not to be a horrible human being, then maybe you need to readjust your own life. The people it affects the most are telling us it's embarrassing and hurtful. It is a self-described monument to white supremacy. It is not a figurative or metaphorical monument to white supremacy - it is a literal monument to white supremacy and the furtherance of that "ideal." Having a monument to the furtherance and endurance of white supremacy in this prominent, central location in North Augusta communicates the notion that that North Augusta and its people fight for the endurance of white supremacy. We explicitly fight against the lie of white supremacy. A monument to the furtherance of white supremacy only belongs in a place that is committed to white supremacy. This is not that place.
