

Notice of Assembly of Members of City Council for Future Planning Workshop

Date: January 26, 2022

Location: Newberry, South Carolina

General Information

On Wednesday, January 26, 2022, the Mayor, City Council, and staff will be traveling to Newberry, South Carolina. The purpose of this workshop will be to consider future planning for various City projects. This workshop is being held off site/out of the City to have Mayor, Council, and staff together for discussion with minimal distractions. Council will also tour downtown Newberry to learn what they have done to revitalize their downtown.

Since a quorum of Council members will be present in Newberry, this will constitute a "meeting" as identified by the Freedom of Information Act. However, there will be no votes or formal action by the Council during their presence in Newberry. This will be an open meeting and the Public may attend.

Location for Assembly in Newberry

The Mayor, Council members, and staff will be assembling at the Newberry Firehouse Conference Center, 1227 McKibben Street, Newberry, South Carolina. It is anticipated that the parties should arrive at approximately 9:00 A.M. and return to North Augusta by approximately 6:00 P.M.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

Any individual or media member desiring additional information related to this gathering by the Council should contact City Administrator, James S. Clifford.
