

Quercus nuttallii 'QNSTC' P.P.#16,401

Esplande Nuttall Oak

Category: Deciduous, broadleaf, mid-size native tree
Hardiness: Zone 6-8
Foliage: Large, deeply lobed and toothed foliage is a clean deep green that turns red burgundy in fall
Bark: Dark, gray-brown; divided into scaly rigid plates and broken by shallow furrows.
Shape: Elongated oval crown
Mature Size: 30-60ft tall 20-40ft wide
Growth Rate: Fast
Shade: Full Sun tolerates part shade
Adaptability: rich, moist, acidic well-drained soils. Tolerates wet soils.
Native Habitat: From Eastern United States to coastal to Minnesota down through Arkansas and into Texas
Uses: Accents or Group Plantings, Borders, Woodland Gardens, Naturalized Areas, Wildlife Gardens, Privacy Screen, and Shade Tree.

