

Platanus occidentalis American Sycamore

Category: Deciduous, broadleaf, large tree
Hardiness: Zone 3 to 8
Foliage: Dark Green
Bark: Smooth; light gray, developing mottled bark patches of creamy white, and olive, gray-green
Winter color: Yellowish to brown, not showy fall color
Shape: Pyramidal in youth, developing a spreading ,rounded crown.
Mature Size: 75-90' tall by 50-70' wide
Growth Rate: Fast
Shade: Full Sun
Adaptability: Good adaptability to urban soil conditions, shallow roots.
Native Habitat: Eastern United States
Uses: As a specimen, urban areas, parks, and Street tree, buffer plantings, and median strips.

