

Acer palmatum 'Bloodgood' Bloodgood Japanese Maple

Category: Deciduous, broadleaf small tree
Hardiness: Zone 5b-8
Foliage: Opposite, simple, palmate; purple-red; greenish red leaves in hot summer conditions with Red fall color
Bark: Greenish red when young; light gray when mature
Shape: Globose, spreading
Mature Size: 30-50ft tall by 20-30ft wide
Growth Rate: Moderate
Shade: Part sun to shade
Adaptability: Moderate tolerance to urban environments; needs a shaded moist and well drained site.
Native Habitat: Japan, Korea, and Central China
Uses: Patio tree, containers, specimen and accent tree

