

Zelkova carpinifolia
Caucasian Zelkova

Category: Large Deciduous Shade Tree
Hardiness: 5-8
Foliage: The leaves are alternate, (1.6–3.9 in) long and (1–2+ $\frac{1}{8}$ in) broad, the margin bluntly serrated with 7–12 teeth on each side.; oval or slightly heart-shaped at the base; dark green.
Bark: grayish- tan exfoliating bark.
Shape: The crown is a highly distinctive vase-shape, with a short broad trunk dividing low down into numerous nearly erect branches.
Mature Size: 65-115ft tall
Growth Rate: Slow
Shade: Full sun
Adaptability: loamy soil well drained
Native Habitat: The Transcaucasian forests of Russia Caucasus, Kaçkar, and Alborz mountains in the extreme southeast of Europe and Southwest Asia
Uses: Commemorative tree, Arbor Day tree

