

Prunus caroliniana Carolina Cherry Laurel

Category: Large Evergreen shrub
Hardiness: Zone 7 to 10
Foliage: Dark green
Bark: smooth in youth, more irregular with time, dark gray to almost black
Winter color: green
Shape: pyramidal to oval large shrub small tree
Mature Size: 20-30ft tall by 15-25ft wide
Growth Rate: Slow
Shade: Full Sun to part shade
Adaptability: Adaptable to well drained sandy and clay soils
Native Habitat: Coastal Plain of the Southeast, Coastal Virginia to Northern Florida, West to Louisiana
Uses: Prevalent as fencerows and planted with regularity by birds.

