

Metasequoia glyptostroboides

Dawn Redwood

Category: Deciduous, coniferous, large tree
Hardiness: Zone 5-8
Foliage: Needle-like, less than 2" long green foliage
Blooms: Shades of red, yellow, & brown blooms in the spring
Bark: Rough; orange-red to brown; buttress-like root flare at the base of the trunk
Winter color: Turns orange -yellow in the fall
Shape: Pyramidal, symmetrical canopy
Mature Size: 70-90ft tall by 15-25ft wide
Growth Rate: Fast
Shade: Full Sun
Adaptability: Good tolerance to ozone and sulfur dioxide pollution
Native Habitat: China
Uses: Specimen in large lawn area, buffer plantings and median strip plantings, good for wet soil sites.

TREE CITY USA®

TREE CITY USA®
An Arbor Day Foundation Program