

Cedrus deodara; Mystic Ice Deodar Cedar

Mystic Ice® Deodar Cedar is an evergreen which creates a bold outline in the landscape with its tight, dense, upright branching pattern

Category: Evergreen large tree

Hardiness: Zone 7-9

Foliage: Needle-like leaves 1" long clusters, color ranges from green, blue-green, silver blue-green, powdery blue-green

Blooms: Green to brown male cones produce yellow pollen in the fall.

Bark: Smooth; greenish brown matures to grayish brown; develops fissures and plates with age.

Shape: Upright, dense branching structure, uniform

Mature Size: 30-50ft tall by 20-30ft wide

Growth Rate: Fast

Shade: Full Sun

Adaptability: Must have well drained soil and does not tolerate smog.

Native Habitat: Afghanistan, Kashmir, Northern India & Western Himalayas

Uses: Specimen in large lawn area, large screen evergreen, street and median planting only where soil is well drained

