

Quercus x rubra 'QRMTF' 'Nobylton' Northern RedOak

Nobylton® is a stunning Northern Red Oak which has large leaves that will flush red through summer months turning to a very dark green foliage. It is a fast grower and very heat tolerant.

Category: Deciduous, broadleaf, large tree

Hardiness: Zone 6-8

Foliage: Red when leaves emerge, then very dark green

Bark: Smooth grayish brown when young; matures dark gray to blackish brown; marked with horizontal light gray lines; develops shallow vertical fissures and rounded ridges

Shape: Uniform, dense, dominant leader

Mature Size: 60-70ft tall 30-35ft wide

Growth Rate: Fast

Shade: Full Sun, part sun

Adaptability: likes acidic soils

Native Habitat: From Eastern United States to coastal to Minnesota down through Arkansas and into Texas

Uses: Accents or Group Plantings, Borders, Woodland Gardens, Naturalized Areas, Wildlife Gardens, Privacy Screen, and Shade Tree.

