

Taxodium distichum var. imbricarium, Pond Cypress

Category: Deciduous, coniferous, large tree
Hardiness: Zone 5 to 9
Foliage: soft appressed, rich green needles produce a foliage effect similar to that of a Cryptomeria japonica
Bark: Smooth; reddish brown fibers when young, ridges are narrow strips, ribbons and bands overlapping
Winter color: Orang-brown fall color, and drop off the tree.
Shape: Pyramidal, columnar
Mature Size: Can reach 70 tall by 15-20' wide
Growth Rate: Slow
Shade: Full Sun to light shade
Adaptability: Good adaptability.
Native Habitat: Southern Swamps
Uses: Large parking lot islands, screenings and as a shade tree.

