

Ulmus americana 'Princeton' Princeton American Elm

Native shade tree - own root. This older American Elm introduction with large leathery foliage, is vigorous and resistant to Elm Leaf Beetle and Dutch Elm Disease. Selected by William Flemer Sr. for its rapid growth, vase habit, and disease resistance.

Category: Native
Hardiness: Zone 4 to 7
Foliage: Dark Green
Bark: Grayish brown with ridges and fissures.
Winter color: Yellow fall color
Shape: Upright Vase
Mature Size: 40-70' tall by 30-50' wide
Growth Rate: Fast
Shade: Full Sun to Part Shade
Adaptability: Tough tree once established
Native Habitat: Eastern Half of Northern America
Uses: As a specimen, urban areas, parks, and Street tree

