

Quercus phellos 'Wynstar'
Wynstar Willow Oak

Category: Deciduous Large Tree

Hardiness: 5-9

Foliage: Rich dark green willow-like foliage emerges burgundy red and orange in the fall.

Bark: Smooth gray when young; matures to dark gray with shallow fissures, ridges and irregular, small plates and scales

Shape: Uniform structure that is broadly pyramidal when young

Mature Size: 40-60ft. tall x 30-40ft. wide

Growth Rate: Moderate to fast

Shade: Full sun, part sun

Adaptability: Very adaptable to well drained clay or loam soil

Native Habitat: Eastern and Southern United States; cultivar of nursery origin

Uses: Street tree, specimen, parking lots, highly visible public planting sites when uniformity is needed

