

Notice of Assembly of Members of City Council
for Retreat Workshop

Date: February 21, 2024

Location: Lexington, SC

General Information

On Wednesday, February 21, 2024, the Mayor, City Council, and staff will be traveling to Lexington, SC. The purpose of this workshop will be to discuss potential CPST V projects, to update the CPST IV spend plan, and provide an update on tourism efforts. This workshop is being held off site/out of the City to have Mayor, Council, and staff together for discussion with minimal distractions. Council will also tour downtown Lexington to learn what they have done to revitalize their downtown.

Since a quorum of Council members will be present in Lexington, this will constitute a “meeting” as identified by the Freedom of Information Act. However, there will be no votes or formal action by the Council during their presence in Lexington. This will be an open meeting and the Public may attend.

Location for Assembly in Lexington

The Mayor, Council members, and staff will be assembling at the Town of Lexington, 111 Maiden Ln, Lexington, SC. It is anticipated that the parties should arrive at approximately 9:00 am and return to North Augusta by approximately 6:00 pm.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

Any individual or media member desiring additional information related to this gathering by the Council should contact City Administrator, James S. Clifford.
